

About Ickle Pickle

Ickle Pickle Productions is a Canberra-based production company, providing original and innovative entertainment to the Canberra community as well as technical solutions for live theatre, television and film. Ickle Pickle Productions was founded in late 2005 as a result of a request by the Belconnen Community Service Arts and Culture Program to produce quality and accessible theatre productions. The result was the critically acclaimed and box office success known as Goldilocks, by Peter McDonald. Since these humble beginnings, Ickle Pickle Productions is now an established fixture in the Canberra theatre community. Ickle Pickle Productions has a reputation for developing new shows, providing Canberra audiences and performers with the opportunity to see and be involved in original and innovative productions, as well as producing classic musicals such as The Wizard of Oz, Oliver!, Seussical, and Peter Pan. Ickle Pickle has also been commissioned by the National Gallery of Australia to produce four original productions to open new exhibitions, including Muse de Light, for the Masterpieces from Paris Exhibition in 2009, and Toulouse au Rouge for the Toulouse-Lautrec exhibition in 2012. Ickle Pickle Productions provides a structured, supportive, safe and dynamic theatre environment, with a varied program offering opportunities to actors and production teams of all skill levels and experience. If you would like to be involved in future productions, either on stage, backstage, marketing or in any other way, please contact: info@icklepickle.com.au
